Other Service

I am a strong believer and practitioner of DEIA and social justice. I advocate for BIPoC, LGBTQIA+, Appalachian Peoples, and other disenfranchised in every aspect of University and Community life. Every year I work to enhance my personal awareness and increase my sensitivity to the information needs of diverse groups and individuals in our communities.

Major activities: Participation in the First Year Experience Program; help undergraduate students apply for the University Libraries' Undergraduate Research Library Fellowship (URLF).

Droppin' Science Museum function is to celebrate Diversity and Hip Hop Culture in the Virtual World. In addition, Droppin Science serves as a virtual classroom and "movie lot" for the OSU Digital Storytelling.

Assisted with the Granville High School Global Awareness Research program spearheaded by Ms. Magda El-Sherbini, Middle East Librarian. On March 13, 2019, over 100 Granville High School Global Awareness students spent the day at Thompson Library learning about research databases and researching specific countries. My task was to instruct students on key African social issues provide hands-on database searching assistance. I developed a LibGuide, "Guide to Resources and Information on Selected African Countries and Topics" <https://guides.osu.edu/c.php?g=913949&p=6584411> for their use. In addition, my African resources and information lecture is included. The countries covered are Botswana, Ghana, Kenya, Nigeria, Rwanda, Senegal, Somalia, and South Africa.
